Review of your chart begins on admission to the hospital.

We conduct real-time review of your record for completeness.

This includes procedures, labs, tests, and x-rays.

We ask your medical team questions so that your record is correct.

After discharge, your complete record is reviewed again to make sure it tells the whole story.

Who are We?
- Clinical Documentation
- Clinical Charge Capture